

Please note – this form is to be submitted by PhD students who have a petrophysical element of their PhD project and who wish to be considered for partial funding by AFES. Any awards will be at the discretion of the AFES committee. Funding is intended to be used by the recipient on relevant expenditures, e.g. travel expenses, field trips, conferences, living expenses etc.

The deadline for submission of this form is Saturday, 31st December 2016.

For more information visit <http://www.afes.org.uk/student-funding/>

Name
E-mail
Phone
University
University address
Supervisors' names and email addresses
Your previous degrees	(please describe your first/second degrees – which university, what degree awarded, grade and dates)
Relevant employment history	(please give brief details of where, when, job title etc.)
PhD project title	(if you do not yet have a title please include a one line description)

Please give details of your current subject of study (what is the aim of the PhD project, what datasets are you working with, which company is supplying the data etc.)

Please give details of how petrophysics forms an important part of your studies (i.e. how you are using core/log data etc.)

Please give details of other funding you are currently receiving

As part of the application process, you must have two sponsors for the bursary

- 1) Your University Supervisor
- 2) A member of the Aberdeen Formation Evaluation Society

Your sponsors must fill out the rest of the application on the next page

Application for PhD Funding

1) University Supervisor

Name
E-mail
Phone
University
University address
A brief description why you are proposing your candidate

2) AFES society member

Name
E-mail
Phone
Employer
Employer address
A brief description why you are proposing your candidate

Please be aware that AFES would like you (if you successfully receive funding from AFES) to present a poster at our Annual General Meeting in October. We would also like to encourage your attendance to our lectures and our events. Above all, we would like you to keep in touch!

Please complete and send this form along with your current CV and a covering email to Nicolas Backert backert_nicolas@hotmail.com